

Questionmark Perception

Questionmark Perception (QMP) is a tool for creating and delivering assessments online. It provides a wider variety of question types than most systems, and can be used for both formative and summative assessments. If you have a large bank of questions you may want to think about using Questionmark Perception in your teaching.

Get in touch

lt-support@inf.ed.ac.uk

Related links

Information Services support pages