

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Dubious analogies follow

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

The case of Tahmina Kohistani

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

The case of Tahmina Kohistani

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

The case of Tahmina Kohistani

Ran the slowest time in the women's 100m
14.42 s
10.75 s Shelly-Ann Fraser-Pryce

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

The case of Tahmina Kohistani

Ran the slowest time in the women's 100m
14.42 s
4% quicker than she'd ever run before
(10.60 s Shelly-Ann Fraser-Pryce)

Prize and Prejudice

Brian Mitchell
University Teacher

formerly
1st Year Coordinator
Dept of Computing
Imperial College

Takeaway points

Prizes for different levels

Most prestigious prize should recognise relative improvement over absolute achievement