

na:wh [0728]

new architectures : world heritage [site 0728, 'Old & New Towns of Edinburgh']

www.newarchitectures.com

exhibition 12-15 march 2013

showcasing a range of projects built and conceived since Edinburgh's 1995 World Heritage inscription, manifesting the evolution of the World Heritage site through its new architectures.

Free admission.

CONTRIBUTORS INCLUDE:

Adam Dudley Architects, Aedas, Benjamin Tindall Architects, Edinburgh Exchange(s) Studio (University of Edinburgh, UoE), Gareth Hoskins Architects, Helen Lucas Architects, Hypostyle Architects, Kobayashi Studio, Malcolm Fraser Architects (talk), Oliver Chapman Architects, Page\Park Architects, Richard Murphy Architects, Scottish Centre for Conservation Studies (UoE), Simpson & Brown Architects, William Tunnell Architecture, Wiszniewski Thomson Architects, Zone Architects and Edinburgh World Heritage.

conference 14-15 march 2013

exploring the evolving architectures of the Edinburgh World Heritage site, to identify opportunities for dynamic cultural development in light of the meaning, materials and methods of World Heritage authenticity.

Places limited, please book early.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Dr Jukka Jokilehto (Keynote Speaker, ICCROM), Suzanne Ewing (UoE & Zone Architects), Prof Miles Glendinning (UoE), Dr Stephen Harwood (UoE), Prof Robert Morris (UoE), Richard Murphy (Richard Murphy Architects), David Page (Page\Park Architects), John Sanders (Simpson & Brown Architects), Dr Ruxandra-Iulia Stoica (UoE), Dr Dimitris Theodossopoulos (UoE), James D. White (Architect), Adam Wilkinson (Edinburgh World Heritage) and Dorian Wiszniewski (UoE).

Hosted by the Scottish Centre for Conservation Studies, The University of Edinburgh.

Convened by James D. White (architect & researcher) and Dr. Ruxandra-Iulia Stoica (architect & urbanist).

With the generous support of Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners and RIAS (The Royal Incorporation of Architects in Scotland), in partnership with Edinburgh World Heritage and DOCOMOMO International – Specialist Committee on Urbanism and Landscape.