About Workshop

Come along to a fun, informal workshop with Annie Cook, filmmaker, director and actor where she will share some of her experiences in working creatively during the pandemic including:

- developing your ideas to fit with your environment;
- finding opportunities as an artist;
- finding inspiration using restrictions;
- using what you've got around you;
- embedding humour.

There will be a presentation with Q&A followed by light touch group discussions on your own creative experiences.
