

Rebecca E. Smith

Rebecca E. Smith graduated from DJCAD, and makes jewellery under the name 'Smith and Gibb'. Inspired by a series of love letters exchanged between her grandparents during the second world war, she creates brightly coloured, minimalist forms mostly using enamel and silver. The colours in her work are evocative of those seen in vintage, post war fashion. The simplicity of her designs coupled with the bold colours of enamel she uses create statement pieces of jewellery.

