

Form and Facet Silverware

My final designs for the form and facet brief are a pair of silver goblets and a silver plate with a condiment bowl inspired by the hexagonal shapes found in beehives. Each piece will have a hammered finish with a high polish and are designed to be bought as a light hearted 'wine and dine' set. The plate has a dip in the centre to allow the small accompanying bowl of sit supported in the middle.

