

LAMPSHADE

Similar to my previous work on the poppers, I wanted to create two GIFs to accompany the final piece. Simple as they are, beside each other, they effectively illustrate the differences in how light is perceived between the original and my altered form.

