

Methodology

My research methodology aims to collect qualitative and quantitative data from a survey. The survey is aimed at people who are within the Queer Community who socialize and/or live in Edinburgh. I approached the questionnaire in a sensitive manner and kept the questions to surface level in order to gain participants trust and not to provoke any sensitive issues.