

St Vincent Bar, Edinburgh.

A hole in wall style bar service area, gives direct service to the outside bar. During the Covid 19 lock downs this door service was used for their takeaway pints. "The Hatch". My design would hope to include something similar, giving the resident of the accommodation direct access to this area instead of having to go out to courtyard and back in. It creates a line of exclusive connection.

