

Nora Rochel

Nora Rochel's work is heavily influenced by flowers, roots, seeds and herbs which she reimagines through incredible silver and gold jewellery. She explores the cycle of life through botanical forms, from seed to decay, in a uniform way so that each piece is recognisably hers. She captures the ethereal and healing nature of plants in distinctive designs that appear to belong to folk fairy tales and yet have a strong contemporary feel.

