Han Qiu's blog represents a sophisticated evolution from an art history student to a critical curator. Her work is characterized by a rigorous synthesis of sociopolitical theory and digital ethics, treats the exhibition space as a site for urgent socio-political inquiry.

1. Strengths:

Professional Operationality : The Week 6 Pitch is a standout. Including a detailed budget and a multi-layered public program (AI Identity workshop, Data Ethics Lab) is a masterstroke. It demonstrates that curating is a production of social relations and financial logistics, not just selecting pretty things.
