

Route No.	Walking Route	Walking Time (Distance)	Route Details	Accessible Route	Rest Spots	Check-in Tips
1	Princes Street → Waverley Bridge	8 minutes (about 500m)	Start from Princes Street (beside the Scott Monument, exhibition check-in point), walk along the east side of Princes Street Gardens, cross the pedestrian crossing (with traffic lights, accessible), and directly reach the middle section of Waverley Bridge (exhibition check-in point, near the railway station entrance). Along the way, you can enjoy the green plants of Princes Street Gardens and the panoramic view of the Scott Monument, avoiding the	The whole journey is flat with no steps, suitable for wheelchairs and strollers.	Benches at the entrance of Princes Street Gardens (beside the starting point of the walk), viewing platform in the middle of Waverley Bridge (near the check-in point).	After arriving at Waverley Bridge, you can complete the AR check-in at the viewing position in the middle of the bridge. This is the core perspective of Edinburgh postcards, where you can capture the castle, old town streets and passing trains at the same time.

			traffic flow on the main road of Princes Street.
2	Waverley Bridge → Royal Mile	12 minutes (about 800m)	Start from the middle section of Waverley Bridge, walk south along Market Street, cross the intersection and enter Ramsay Lane, walk gently uphill (no steep slopes, avoiding steep sections), and reach the north end of Royal Mile (near Edinburgh Castle, exhibition check-in point). Along the way, you can pass through old town characteristic shops and feel the medieval street atmosphere.	The whole journey has no steps and the road surface is flat, suitable for all types of travelers; Ramsay Lane is relatively narrow, so it is recommended to avoid the peak crowd (11:00-14:00).	Benches on Market Street, rest area at the north entrance of Royal Mile (near St Giles' Cathedral).	Royal Mile is one of the core exhibition sites. After arriving, you can go to the area near the bagpiper performance to complete the check-in and feel the fireworks and human touch of the old town.
3	Royal Mile → Holyro	15 minutes	Start from the north end of Royal Mile,	The whole journey	Rest benches at Hunter	There is a CL scent installation in od Park	(about 1000 m)	walk south along the main street, pass by attractions such as St Giles' Cathedral and John Knox House, cross Canongate, and reach the north gate of Holyrood Park (exhibition check-in point, near the Scottish Parliament Building). The whole journey walks along the ancient city cobblestone roads, avoiding branch lanes to ensure a clear route[^{script:4}].	has no steps, the north gate entrance is equipped with an accessible ramp, and the walking route in the park is flat, which can directly reach the CL scent installation exhibition area.	Square in the middle of Royal Mile, lawn rest area at the north gate entrance of Holyrood Park.	Holyrood Park. After arriving, you can walk along the main road of the park to the installation area. Along the way, you can enjoy the view of Arthur's Seat and feel the integration of natural space and the city.

4	Holyrood Park → Leith	14 minutes (about 900m)	Start from the north gate of Holyrood Park, walk east along London Road, cross Leith Street, enter the core area of Leith community, and reach the	The whole journey is flat with no steps. London Road is equipped with a dedicated sidewalk, and there	Rest benches at the bus stop in the middle of London Road, rest area beside Leith Docks.	Leith is a low-risk guerrilla curation site. After arriving, you can complete the AR interactive check-in beside the geometric installation and feel the

			Leith exhibition check-in point (near Leith Docks, where Toby Preston's geometric installation is located). Along the way, you can pass through Leith community shops and residential areas, feel the local life atmosphere, and avoid the main traffic roads.	are traffic lights when crossing the road, suitable for wheelchair access.		critical expression of the theme of space control.
5	Leith → Ocean Terminal	13 minutes (about 850m)	Start from the Leith exhibition check-in point, walk west along Leith Shore, pass by Leith Docks and characteristic pubs, cross the peripheral passage of Ocean Terminal Shopping Mall, and reach the Ocean Terminal exhibition	The whole journey has no steps, the coastal footpath is equipped with accessible facilities, and the entrance of Ocean Terminal Shopping Mall is equipped with a	Viewing benches on Leith Shore footpath, rest area at the entrance of Ocean Terminal Shopping Mall.	Ocean Terminal is a security zone site. After arriving, you can participate in the interaction in the co-creation sandbox area, and at the same time, you can go to the "Boundary Reflection Wall" to leave a message and complete the site check-in.

			check-in point (where the co-creation sandbox is located, near the permanent mooring place of the Royal Yacht Britannia). The whole journey walks along the coast of the Firth of Forth, with beautiful scenery and flat road conditions.	wheelchair passage.
--	--	--	--	----------------------------	--	--