

Early Childhood Education in Fragile Settings blog series – First SIPP blog post

The South African partner community is Vrygrond, 20 kilometers from Cape Town central. Vrygrond or 'free ground', was one of the first informal settlements in South Africa. The Overcome Heights section still lacks municipal infrastructure – roads, sewage system and piped water.