

Lizette Berry

Lizette is a senior researcher at the Children's Institute, University of Cape Town. She holds a Masters in Social Science, specialising in social policy and management. She has close to 20 years' experience in child policy research and has a background in social work. Lizette has an interest in the care and development of children and her current research work is focussed on early childhood development. She lives in Cape Town with her husband and two children.

List of publications: