

November Newsletter

Welcome to the November 2017 edition of the Staff PFLAG Network Newsletter!

Dear LGBT colleagues and friends,

It's time to take a moment and I am delighted to take you through the highlights from the last few weeks. I will be focusing on PFLAG in the context of the University, with a focus on how we have worked together to support our LGBT colleagues and friends. I will also be highlighting some of the ways in which we have worked together to support our LGBT colleagues and friends. SPW ems now available!

We are pleased to announce that our Smart Pen is now available. This device allows you to take notes and create documents directly on the pen, which can then be synced to your computer or smartphone. It is a convenient and efficient way to capture information during meetings and presentations. The Smart Pen is available for purchase from the University Store. For more information, please contact the University Store at 0115 951 5511.

Appeal for Social & Events Volunteers

We are looking for Social & Events volunteers to help us with our activities. We need people who are enthusiastic, reliable, and able to work with a team. The roles are flexible and can be done on a part-time basis. If you are interested, please contact the PFLAG Network at 0115 951 5511.

Transgender Day of Remembrance

Transgender Day of Remembrance is a day to remember transgender people who have been killed because of their gender identity or expression. It is held annually on November 20th. We are holding a candlelight vigil on the steps of the University Library at 6pm on November 20th. All are welcome to attend. For more information, please contact the PFLAG Network at 0115 951 5511.

Please welcome Avesha Sodha - our new Black & Minority Ethnic Officer!

We are delighted to welcome Avesha Sodha as our new Black & Minority Ethnic Officer. Avesha is a passionate and dedicated individual who will be working to support and advocate for our Black & Minority Ethnic colleagues. She will be leading the BME Network and will be working closely with the PFLAG Network. Avesha will be holding a meeting with the BME Network on November 20th. All are welcome to attend.
